1. You will recall that we agreed that a small study group, as suggested by the Executive Director-Comptroller, should be brought together for two to three days of brainstorming. At my request Mr. [redacted] has reviewed the schedules and has now been in touch with Messrs. [redacted]. They will be in Headquarters ready to work at 9 o'clock on Monday, 29 January 1968, and will depart Wednesday afternoon, 31 January. We have arranged the following schedule of meeting places:

29 January 1968	5E-60	0900 - 1700
30 January 1968	5E-60 4E-64	0900 - 1230 1400 - 1700
31 January 1968	4E-64	0900 - 1200

2. Subject to your approval, I would propose asking [redacted] to chair the sessions and prepare a report of their findings. Mr. [redacted] should also participate. Would you like to take perhaps the first 30 minutes to set the frame of reference for their deliberations? You indicated a desire to have [redacted] participate; do you wish to invite their participation or would you prefer that the Director of Personnel do this?
